

American Veterans Vote Volunteers

Thank you for your interest in becoming an AVV Volunteer with our Liaison Team

Our Purpose

The Liaison Team connects AVV to local political officials, community leaders, candidates and campaigns (when appropriate) and AVV allied organizations.

Your Tasks

As part of a team, you can use existing or new memberships, community contacts, or community activities to gather or provide information related to elections, local issues, or ongoing initiatives helpful to AVV interests and supporting activities. Periodic short reports via email or Zoom necessary. Recruiting new members is an important secondary task.

Where / When

You will work within your local community or locality. You will represent AVV locally as needed with necessary support and information from AVV headquarters.

Time Requirement

1-2 hours per week for reporting; engagement activities per personal schedule

Other notes:

Expect training or updates on AVV as an institution and AVV initiatives ongoing and planned.
Recruiting new members via website, phone, or paper applications ongoing
Full familiarization with AVV website useful
